Road to Flourishing: 8 Keys to Boost Employee Engagement and Well-Being

Road to Flourishing will help you discover how to create a workplace where people thrive and love what they do and where they work.

FLOURISH MODEL COLOR CODING

Throughout the report we will be using the following color coding to represent the drivers that impact employee engagement toward a Flourishing workplace.

|                    |                          |                        |
|--------------------|--------------------------|------------------------|
| Fantastic Teams    | Uplifting Growth         | Sustainable Strategy   |
| Life-Giving Work   | Rewarding Compensation   | Healthy Communication  |
| Outstanding Talent | Inspirational Leadership | Engagement Indicators* |

*The questions in the "Engagement Indicators" category are not drivers of engagement, but rather the dependent variables used for data analysis.

IMPORTANCE OF STRENGTH AREAS TO EMPLOYEE ENGAGEMENT

* Improving employee engagement starts by focusing on areas of strength that have the highest impact. In the percentile rank column on the table above we have put an asterisk next to the questions that have the most impact on employee engagement in organizations. To determine which questions have the most influence on employee engagement, we regressed each question against the combination of these Engagement Indicator questions in the survey:

- I would recommend Asbury Theological Seminary to others as a good place to work.
- I would rate Asbury Theological Seminary as an exceptional place to work.
- I would prefer to remain with Asbury Theological Seminary even if a comparable role at a higher pay level were available in another organization.
- I am motivated to put in extra effort beyond what is expected to help Asbury Theological Seminary succeed.

For a full list of impact scores, also known as correlations, please see the Appendix: Sector Comparison.

PERCENTILE RANK SCALE

The summary above is a combination of your Engagement Survey Report results and the relative importance of each driver based on our research. It is a snapshot of your relative strengths and improvement opportunities. The size of the spheres and the number (representing the weighting) demonstrate how important each driver is to staff engagement. The position (left to right) matches your survey scores relative to your sector. The goal is to move these spheres to the right.
