

Employee Retention

Compensation & Benefits: Reassess, clarify, and communicate Asbury's compensation and benefits philosophy.

Team: Barbara Antrobus, Bryan Blankenship, Chriss Rooney, Kelly Bixler, Susan Hees, Tammy Cessna

#	Action Steps	Person (s) Responsible	Complete by Date	Notes
1	Conduct a town hall meeting to update the community on the results of the compensation study and discuss next steps.	Project Team	January	Two town halls occurred. One on January 25 and the other on January 31. The presentation can be found on the landing page.
2	Ask employees what means the most to them. Conduct a survey and listening sessions to identify individual preferences and priorities regarding compensation and benefits recognizing the diversity of needs and desires among team members.	Project Team	February - May	Actions 2 - 7 follow the roadmap outlined in the Rewarding Compensation chapter from the Road to Flourish book developed by the Best Christian Workplaces.
3	Develop and articulate a comprehensive total compensation and benefits philosophy that restates Asbury's identity, mission, and values, outlining the seminary's stance on various compensation and benefit components including market rate comparison, pay for specialized functions, and the level of benefits.	Project Team	February - May
4	Define a comprehensive compensation and benefits strategy that translates the broad principles of the total compensation and benefits philosophy, influenced by team member input, into specific and practical policies, addressing aspects such as performance evaluation criteria, budget allocation for pay increases, and the allocation of paid time off.	Project Team	February - May
5	Evaluate current compensation and benefits practices by calculating and comparing the total annual cost of existing practices with the envisioned strategy, determining the achievability of the identified gap and assessing the need for a potential strategy review.	Project Team	February - May
6	Design a multiyear plan by initially prioritizing components of the compensation and benefits strategy.	Project Team	February - May
7	Effectively communicate the compensation and benefits philosophy and strategy emphasizing the importance of transparent communication while maintaining confidentiality where necessary.	Project Team	February - May	